

Career Transition Network™

Career Transition Network™ : some things end - others begin.

Many challenges: One solution: Career Transition Network™

Today's challenging financial climate forces us to make difficult decisions. Employees are made redundant, which puts your company's reputation at stake.

We are here to help

Mentis Consulting partners with Insala, a leading global provider of web-based software for outplacement, to design a range of groundbreaking career transition and outplacement services: Career Transition Network™. Our solutions will ensure that your departing employees receive the support they deserve during difficult and sensitive work transitions.

- Career Development Sessions
- Personal CV Advice
- Networking Events
- Retirement Advice
- Interviewing Skills Preparation
- Effective Networking Workshops
- Transferrable Skills Identification
- Project management
- Feedback on personality and career preferences

“ Innovative and cost effective outplacement solutions for your organisation ”

Three different level of support are offered: The Silver, Gold and Platinum packages. These are cost-effective, personalised, ethical and include on-line services, internationally respected personality assessments and face to face feedback and coaching.

Each package can be customised for your organisation in order to meet different levels of assistance.

For more information please visit mentis-consulting.com. Credits offered in the Gold and Platinum Package can be used to purchase Career Transition Network™ services; additional credits can be purchased for bespoke programmes.
